

Grief Counseling After the Loss of a Pet

If you live in the Denver, Colorado area and you have recently lost a pet, this service may be beneficial.

Those experiencing grief due to the loss of a pet are welcome to attend weekly group meetings offered by:

Denver Area Veterinary Medical Society
Suite 550
789 Sherman Street
Denver, Colorado 80203-3596

The group meets every Monday night from 7:00 to 8:30 PM in the first floor conference room. Attendees should enter through the west entrance.

There is always a professional grief counselor hosting the meeting, and there is no charge to attend. Anyone can attend one or more meetings of their choice and are asked to bring a picture of their deceased pet.

For more information or to obtain a free brochure, call 303-318-0447.